Mark Turco, Jr. of Mount Holly Competes in National Skills Conference

Mark Turco, Jr. of Mount Holly was one of seven Vermont Tech students and recent graduates had the opportunity to represent Vermont post-secondary technical education at the SkillsUSA National Leadership and Skills Conference. The conference ran from Tuesday, June 26th to Friday, June 29th in Louisville, Kentucky.

Vermont Tech was represented in four separate events, all related to manufacturing. Manny Aretakis of Pembroke, Maine, Casey Baroffio of Northfield, and Mark Turco Jr. of Mount Holly (all graduates of the class of 2018) placed third in the nation in the Automated Manufacturing challenge and took home bronze medals. Their task was to recreate a die from synthetic material using the CAD software SolidWorks and a CNC machine. Deema AL Namee of South Burlington (also class of 2018) and current student Aric Donerkiel of Colchester took silver in the Additive Manufacturing Competition. The pair were instructed to design and print a prosthetic thumb that could assist someone with a disability in playing video games. This is the second year Vermont Tech has participated in the National Leadership and Skills Conference, and the first time winning national medals. Student Caleb White of Chester placed 6th in the nation in Technical Drafting. Recent graduate Wes McEntee of Hinesburg participated in the Job Skills Demonstration competition and scored above the 90th percentile in his event. Wes demonstrated the minimum required personal protective equipment for safe welding.

The students were accompanied and mentored by Mechanical Engineering professor, Christopher Gray, who is celebrating his 30th year as a member of SkillsUSA. Each contestant qualified for the SkillsUSA Championships by becoming a state-level gold medalist.

Vermont Tech competed with other colleges and universities like the Tennessee College of Applied Technology, Johnson and Wales University, and the New England Institute of Technology.

SkillsUSA is a national program made up of students, teachers, and industry leaders who want to ensure a successful future for America's skilled workforce. The SkillsUSA Leadership and Skills Conference is a weeklong event that showcases the best technical education students in the nation in about 100 separate competitions.

Mount Holly Community Association

Mount Holly Day was another memorable event for the Mount Holly Community! There are so many people who contribute to the success of this day...the cooks, the set-up and clean-up crew, the supervisors of the children's games, not to mention all those who contributed to the unbelievable gourmet selections of sides, salads, and desserts! We are so fortunate to have so many "foodies" in our town. The MHCA would like to especially acknowledge Beth Latino, the coordinator for this event, along with her two very special helpers, Pam McLaughlin and Jennifer Burrows. It would never have come off without the three of you! We also want to add a very special thank you to Jeb Porter and his band of merry musicians, who added a particularly bright "note" to a very festive day! All of us are already looking forward to next summer!!

Highlights for August: Music on the Green, the musical highlight of a Mount Holly summer, continues on the Village Baptist Church Green. Please join us at 7:00 pm to hear a variety of our talented local musicians. This Thursday, July 26th, don't miss Scott Forrest. All of the musicians do this for free, so be sure to be generous in your contributions each Thursday evening. We look forward to seeing you this Thursday and each Thursday through August 30th!

Annual Meeting of the Mount Holly Community Association: this year the annual meeting will take place on Tuesday, August 7th, with refreshments at 6:30 pm and a brief meeting to follow at 7:00 pm. The exact location is to be determined...it will either be in the Community Room, or in the Library, depending on when the well project gets underway. In addition to a review of the year's events, we will be electing new members to the Board and current members standing for re-election. Also, that evening we will be hanging the Wishing for a Well poster, which lists all of the names of the generous donors to the well project. Most importantly, however, we will be specifically acknowledging and thanking Lisa and Chris Kelley for their extraordinary generosity in allowing us to drill a well on their property. Please join us for this very important meeting!

Update on the Well Project: not much to report, as we continue to await the permit from the state to begin the work. They are due to respond to us sometime this week, so we may have some good news to report soon!

One of the highlights of our summer activities is the Annual Square Dance being held this year on Saturday, August 4th at 8:00 pm. As always, it will be held in the Belmont crossroads outside the Belmont General Store. (In case of rain, it will be held in the Mount Holly School on School Street just off Rte. 103 at the blinking yellow light.) For the second year in a row, we will be welcoming Peter Tobin and his wife, Debbie, who will be there to insure that your feet will be tapping all night, even if you're sitting on the sidelines! If you have never been to a square dance before, don't hesitate to show up...early in the evening, Peter will be walking everyone through the basic fundamentals and before you know it, you'll be having the time of your life. Looking forward to seeing everyone in the Belmont crossroads on August 4th!

Upcoming: Alexa Fila and Joe Solomon will once again be delivering their smooth jazz sound at this year's Cabaret! Be sure to join us on Sunday, September 2nd at 8:00 pm in the library for music and scrumptious desserts.

CIDER DAYS APPLICATIONS ARE DUE AT THE END OF AUGUST! The spaces were sold out last year, so be sure to apply now in order to reserve a space for your business/craft! Applications can be obtained from Morgan Skiathitis, who can be reached at morganskiathitis@gmail.com.

Announcements: in case you are not aware, the 2019 Photo Calendar is available for sale in the Belmont Store, the Library, and in the Town Office. They are out early again this year and we sold out completely last year, so be sure to get the ones you need, while they are available! One can also pick up applications in those locations for this year's photo contest. This competition is a favorite activity during Cider Days weekend, so be sure to join in the fun and submit a photo and your application for this year's contest.

The MHCA Membership Drive is well under way. Last year we were able to match the number of members from the previous year (150 families), but our goal really is to surpass the number each year and that is what we are hoping to do for 2018 – 2019! Please help us to do that this year! Remember, we would have to get more than 150 family memberships, an ambitious goal, but one we know we can achieve with your help! In case you may have misplaced your membership application for the MHCA, you can find them in the Belmont Store, the Library, and the Town Office. Please be sure to join today to support all of the activities that the Community Association provides, as well as support the on-going maintenance and restoration of the beautiful Library & Community Center building.

WHERE IS THE HOPE?

Suicides get our attention. Particularly when they take out beloved icons such as designer Kate Spade and Chef Anthony Bourdain. Two separate suicides in one week raise questions about depression, despair, loneliness and the children and legacies they each left behind. A recent daring rescue on Mt. Hood of a suicidal 27 year-old underscores our nation's crisis.

How bad is America's suicide problem? Well, it's so bad that American's overall life expectancy had declined for the 1st time since the 1930's. Suicide is the tenth leading cause of death in the U.S. with nearly 45,000 Americans taking their own lives each year. Rates have soared in urban and rural areas, among all classes and ages. The witches brew of factors behind this epidemic are the historic ones of feelings of isolation, relationship issues, and financial troubles. Then add to that more recent causes like social fragmentation, the rise in social media, increase in opioid misuse, decrease in religious involvement, and a surge of mood disorders, anxiety and --yes-- the growth of assisted suicide laws. We're drowning in it all.

In the end, this cauldron of chaos boils down to one word: Despair. Despair is the utter absence of hope. And hope is to the soul as breath is to the lungs.

In a recent restaurant visit, I noticed a family of 4--mom, dad, sister, and brother-- out to dinner together but each one staring into their own mobile devices. I'm sure you've seen it, too. Isolation breeds loneliness. And loneliness can be a major factor behind depression, which in turn can set people on the road to self-annihilation. The recent Cigna survey of over 20,000 Americans found that nearly half reported feeling alone (46%) or left out (47%). Nearly 33 million American adults live alone, including a third of our elderly.

So while depression can be a serious mental illness that needs medical and psychological treatment, aloneness is curable. That's the message pastor and author Rick Warren has shared since the 2013 suicide of his son, Matthew. Warren said his son battled mental illness nearly his entire life before his death at age 23. In an online video, Warren offers a gut-level, practical plea to those suffering from despair. "Suicide is a permanent, irreversible attempt to solve a temporary problem," he says. "You don't have to die to end your pain." His plea is for those suffering to reach out to others for help and he urges church folk to talk about their struggles and call out to fellow strugglers, "Come and join us!" Obviously, church-- or for that matter, synagogue or mosque-- attendance has health benefits but also significantly reduces isolation. But in the end, what religious faith provides is meaning, belonging and ultimately hope for something beyond us or our circumstances and our self-isolation.

"Come to me all you who are weary and heavy laden," says Jesus, "and I will give you rest." Our Lord dynamically relates Himself to this need saying, "I am the good shepherd (who) lays down his life for the sheep." His further assurance is, "Lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age," and "I will never fail you or forsake you." One distraught woman, with tears, hearing those words asked, "Do you mean that He would never leave me; that He would always love me if I committed my life to Him?" She was assured that it meant just that.

Has the presence of Jesus Christ ever dispelled your loneliness? If you feel lonely, remember, God cares for you. He experienced supreme loneliness on the cross. God knows and cares. He offers a better way to live and flourish in hope. Pastor Glenn Davis FYI-- Rick Warren's video: www.youtube.com/watch?v=fSvKVWs6zGc -- Suicide help line: 1- 800- 273-TALK (8255)

Wright Construction and LaValley Give Heald Auditorium Stage a Major Face-Lift

Thanks to the combined forces of Wright Construction of Mt Holly and LaValleys of Ludlow, both the stage and back-stage of the Heald Auditorium in the Ludlow Town Hall received a much-needed face-lift recently. LaValleys donated the paint while Wright Construction supplied the manpower. The Wright crew first sanded the entire floor area to prepare it for painting. This was followed by two separate coats of flat black paint to the stage and back-stage areas. In addition to applying the paint, the Wright crew also undertook the major project of removing a piano harp, of a weight that transcended the ability of FOLA (Friends of Ludlow Auditorium) people to deal with, and delivering it its final resting place, the Ludlow Transfer Station. Ralph Pace, a member of FOLA, commented that he didn't believe anyone could ever move the harp and "was amazed at how easily the Wright crew seemed to handle the task". Pictured above are the members of the Wright crew that accomplished all these tasks to renovate the stage of the Heald Auditorium. From left to right, they are: Chris Lafrenier, Rich Butrimas, Scott Grover, Scott Robertson, Joe Poston, Gordon Ashcroft, Carl Lavallee II, Sara Lavallee, Cody Lavallee, Autumn Lavallee, and Carl Lavallee III.

We are growing!

William Raveis Real Estate Vermont Properties is pleased to announce the addition of Joe Karl to our exceptional team.

Many of you may already know Joe. He has been selling real estate in the Okemo area since 1998, initially as part of the team brought together to sell Jackson Gore. Joe has been helping people find their perfect home for over 20 years and continues to enjoy the challenge. When he decided to build his own dream home, he cleared the land and oversaw all aspects of the building process. This provides him a unique perspective which he uses to guide his customers through the often complex process of real estate.

As an active member of the Crown Point Board of Realtors, Joe served as president and was named Realtor of the Year in 2015. In his "spare" time Joe tends a 36-acre mini farm with his wife and three grown daughters. The entire family enjoys skiing, hiking, biking and all the great activities this year-round area offers.

Joe knows this area well and is a great addition to the William Raveis Vermont Properties team. Please join us in welcoming Joe to the team! If you are in the area, stop by the office and say hi.

BRGNS and Okemo Valley TV To Revive Cooking Show

Black River Good Neighbor Services and Okemo Valley TV have announced that the cooking show "Across Our Table" will again be broadcast in the Ludlow area starting on August 1st this year.

Black River Good Neighbor Services is the Ludlow area's primary distributor of USDA and emergency food assistance, Okemo Valley TV is the area's local public access cable TV station, and the two organizations have adjoining facilities in Ludlow's Agan Memorial Building. BRGNS' staff and volunteers provide food to community members in need of food assistance. "Some people find the food that we distribute to be a bit repetitive, so we decided to bring together different recipes using that food and to give those recipes out to anyone who asks," said Krey Kellington, Program Director at BRGNS. "Those recipes led to collaboration with Okemo Valley TV and the revival of our cooking show "Across Our Table"."

The show was originally produced by BRGNS and filmed, edited and broadcast by the TV station during the 2014-2015 season, but has been on hold since then. Krey Kellington and Claire Walker will be the show's hosts in this new season. In each episode, they demonstrate how to prepare three simple, nutritious and tasty recipes that are building blocks for family meals.

The format of the show is much like all cooking shows in that ingredients and preparation are the focus. "But we try to be more informal and cook like real people. There's nothing fancy in what we do or how we do it," said Kellington. "This show is for the majority of us, not for 'foodies' and gourmets."

You can watch "Across Our Table" on Okemo Valley TV if you subscribe to cable in the Ludlow area, or you can access it on the Internet at www.okemovalley.tv. All the recipes demonstrated on the show will be available on Black River Good Neighbors' website, www.BRGN.org. For more information regarding the show, please call Krey Kellington at 802-228-3663.

Quilters with a Cause

"Quilters the Musical" was an independent production by a consortium of local theater women who shared a passion for this play about the universal and timeless struggle of women. Six performances were held in five different venues between October 2017 and April 2018 as a fundraiser for the NewStory Center.

The cast and crew of "Quilters the Musical" are now pleased to announce the donation of their profits from the show to the NewStory Center, formerly known as the Rutland County Women's Network and Shelter. This donation will help improve the lives of survivors in our communities and help end domestic and sexual violence. A total of $2325 was presented to Avaloy Lanning, Executive Director of the NewStory Center, at a final cast/crew gathering hosted by "Quilters'" Director, Jennifer Bagley. At the same time, the sampler quilt which was made up of all the various quilt squares from the show was presented to the lucky winner of the quilt raffle, Donna GoodHale of Rutland. Donna immediately presented the quilt to Steve Descollines, an International student from Haiti. Donna and her husband Brad served as Steve's host family while he attended MSJ. Steve will be attending the College of St. Joseph next year and will surely enjoy the warmth of this quilt.

The cast and crew of "Quilters the Musical" would also like to give special thanks to the staff at the various venues where we performed over those six months: College of St. Joseph, Shrewsbury Town Hall, Champlain Valley Unitarian Universalist Society of Middlebury, United Church of Dorset and East Rupert, and the Brandon Inn. We appreciate all your time and effort spent coordinating with us and local quilters and all your work setting up and cleaning up, even scrambling at the last minute to find more chairs. Thank you also for helping with publicity through word of mouth, church bulletins and web sites. You all made us feel welcome and supported in this venture. Thank you.

And what about those audiences?! We could not have asked for better, more involved, more patient audiences. You put up with "standing room only" performances, even helping to set up more chairs! You never grumbled when we ran out of programs or asked you to share. You still found us when the newspaper gave the wrong address. You still returned when we had to postpone due to the flu bringing down half the cast. You laughed in all the right places and shed tears when appropriate. You chuckled when the dog ran across the stage. You told your friends about us and some of you even came twice. But, most importantly, we thank our audiences for their amazing generosity. It was your "Free Will" offerings that enabled us to support The NewStory Center so generously. We are grateful for your attendance and rewarded to have this play receive such a warm reception. You embody the sense of community that this play represents.

Donate Life Speaks to Ludlow Rotary Club

At its recent meeting, the Ludlow Rotary Club (LRC) featured a presentation by Matt Boger, a representative of the New England section of Donate Life. Matt discussed the organ donation process that helps save lives. He stressed that the process was totally voluntary. He noted the large number of people throughout the nation who are in need of organ transplants. In describing the procedures involved in such operations, Matt noted that, due to the short time transplanted organs may be used, it was necessary to subdivide the nation into districts. Pictured above are some the LRC members following Matt's presentation as they promote the Donate Life program. They include, from left to right, Kyle Matulionis, Mary Crowley, Jill Tofferi, Jack Menzie, Paul Faenza, Suzanne Garvey (kneeling), Kevin Barnes, Kim Lampert, Brett Wright, Alphonsus Harris, Scott Murphy, Sharon Bixby (kneeling), and Barbara Lemire. LRC meets for lunch on most Tuesdays at 12:15 pm at DJ's Restaurant. The LRC is small and is always looking to welcome new members. If you would like to attend a meeting and learn how you may 'Serve Humanity' while enjoying the fun and fellowship of others, please contact any Rotarian or drop a note to Ludlow Rotary, PO Box 216, Ludlow Vermont.

District Governor Presents Plans for Coming Year To Ludlow Rotary

The Ludlow Rotary Club (LRC) recently welcomed Venu Rao, the 2018-19 Governor for Rotary's District 7870, a district that covers Southern Vermont and New Hampshire. The district includes over 60 local Rotary clubs. During his address to the club, Mr. Rao stressed the importance of making the public aware of Rotary International's goals as well as its local and regional accomplishments. He outlined a number of ways each local club may achieve these objectives and, in the process, gain new members. He also praised the LRC for on-going local and regional contributions. Pictured above is Venu Rao and Jill Tofferi, LRC President. LRC meets for lunch on most Tuesdays at 12:15 pm at DJ's Restaurant. The LRC is small and is always looking to welcome new members. If you would like to attend a meeting and learn how you may 'Serve Humanity' while enjoying the fun and fellowship of others, please contact any Rotarian or drop a note to Ludlow Rotary, PO Box 216, Ludlow Vermont.

To the Editor,

The staff, the clients and the volunteers at Black River Good Neighbor Services are grateful to all of those who pitched in to make the recent golf tournament a success. The tournament raised over $5,000, which we will use to defray the costs of several of our food programs. Our programs succeed because of the generosity of our neighbors and friends in the community, and this is just one more example of that generosity.

We thank our generous hosts at Killarney's Restaurant; Mark Verespy and Tyler Butterick were the driving forces making this event fun and profitable. Thanks go to Okemo Valley Golf Club for the use of their facilities as well as Suzanne Garvey and Doris Eddy for their coordination efforts. We also thank all of those volunteers who sold raffle tickets, and we thank all of the sponsors that made the tournament such a rousing success. Finally, we thank everyone who participated for their generous support. Sincerely, Peter J. LaBelle, Board President - Audrey Bridge, Executive Director

ArtFest

Saturday, August 4 is Hidden Figures

"Hidden Figures" will be the next FOLA movie on Saturday, August 4th at Heald Auditorium at the Ludlow Town Hall.

Hidden Figures is a 2016 American biographical drama film based on the non-fiction book about black female mathematicians who worked at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) during the Space Race.

The film stars Taraji P. Henson as Katherine Johnson, a mathematician who calculated flight trajectories for Project Mercury and other missions. The film also features Octavia Spencer as NASA supervisor Dorothy Vaughan and Janelle Monáe as NASA engineer Mary Jackson, with Kevin Costner, Kirsten Dunst, Jim Parsons, Glen Powell, and Mahershala Ali in supporting roles.

Before John Glenn orbited the earth or Neil Armstrong walked on the moon, a group of dedicated female mathematicians known as "human computers" used pencils, slide rules and adding machines to calculate the numbers that would launch rockets, and astronauts, into space.

Among these problem-solvers were a group of exceptionally talented African American women, some of the brightest minds of their generation. Originally relegated to teaching math in the South's segregated public schools, they were called into service during the labor shortages of World War II, when America's aeronautics industry was in dire need of anyone who had the right stuff.

Suddenly, these overlooked math whizzes had a shot at jobs worthy of their skills, and they answered Uncle Sam's call, moving to Hampton Virginia and the fascinating, high-energy world of the Langley Memorial Aeronautical Laboratory. Even as Virginia's Jim Crow laws required them to be segregated from their white counterparts, the women of Langley's all-black "West Computing" group helped America achieve one of the things it desired most: a decisive victory over the Soviet Union in the Cold War, and complete domination of the heavens."

As with all FOLA movies, the film is free and open to everyone; donations are appreciated. Popcorn will be supplied by Berkshire Bank with FOLA providing water. For information, call 802-228-7239 or visit the FOLA website at www.fola.us.

"Her Sister From Paris"

"Her Sister From Paris" will be the next FOLA movie on Saturday, August 18 at Heald Auditorium at the Ludlow Town Hall.

If you thought that sophisticated, sexy adult comedies only happened yesterday, have you got a surprise coming! This romantic comedy is as fresh as tomorrow's blockbuster feature film. It couldn't have been made ten years later, when the Hays Office was censoring motion pictures. One kiss towards the end of the film definitely would have been banned by the Hays Office, but in 1925 the motion picture business was a new and fresh frontier and there were no boundaries to the imagination of screen authors.

Pop your white kernel popcorn and grab a beverage . . . and get ready for a romantic comedy that will have you laughing and hoping and wondering what will happen next as Constance Talmadge twists her husband around her little finger with the help of Her Sister from Paris.

Helen and Joe are married just long enough to have rousing arguments. It seems that the honeymoon is certainly over, and Joe has lost his ardor for Helen. After a big fight Helen goes home to mother, leaving Joe and his single buddy Bob alone. Bob tells Joe that this is the best thing that ever happened to him - now the boys can go out and kick up their heels like in the old days. Wine, women and song for them now that Helen was gone.

Ahhh, but Bob and Joe discover that Helen has a twin sister from Paris who is an exotic dancer, and more beautiful than the rising sun. Sister La Perry is in town tonight, and performing at the big theatre, so Bob and Joe decide to check out her exotic performance. Meanwhile, Helen and her sister from Paris, La Perry decide to give Helen a beauty makeover, and soon Helen is the spitting image of her glamorous sister from Paris.

Things start to get complicated as the boys both want to take the sexy sister out after the performance. Of course Helen pretends to be her sister and goes out with Bob and Joe, pretending to be sexy and sophisticated . . . and making a play for both of them with lusty kisses and suggestive word play. Both boys are head over heels after this sexy and seductive girl, and Helen starts to play head games with her hubby.

As with all FOLA movies, the film is free and open to everyone; donations are appreciated. Popcorn will be supplied by Berkshire Bank with FOLA providing water. For information, call 802-228-7239 or visit the FOLA website at www.fola.us.

Reinbow Riding Center Summer Palooza

Plans are coming together for Summer Palooza August 18th at the Odd Fellows Hall in Belmont. This year live music will be provided by Jenny Porter and Jeb Porter and Friends following the Cardboard Regatta. What could be better fun than building a boat and challenging friends and family, to build a better boar and then watching it sink or float? All you need is cardboard and duct tape. Lots of duct tape!! It's a great way to spend a summer afternoon followed by a BBQ and live music.

Like last year we will be holding a Silent Auction, have games and prizes, and food, food, food at the BBQ. This year Gloria's will be helping us with the desserts so plan on bringing a healthy appetite and your sweet tooth. For an afternoon of FUN and ENTERTAINMENT, don't forget to mark Saturday, August 18th on your calendars.

At the Riding Center we are always looking for more volunteers (no experience necessary!) so if you are interested, please call us at 802-236-2483 or email programs@reinbowridingcenter.org For more information about RRC, Summer Palooza and anyone interested in participating in the program call us or go to our website www.reinbowridingcenter.org

Free Community Event: Ecological diversity of Lake Ninevah

Date to be announced as there was a conflict with August 4th. Vermont ecologist Brett Engstrom will discuss his remarkable two-year inventory of ecological resources around Lake Ninevah. This will be the first public presentation of his fascinating findings. The event will take place at the Mount Holly Town Library Community Room from 1:00-2:30pm. Light refreshments will be served.

The event, hosted by the Ninevah Foundation, will also celebrate the joining of forces with the Farm & Wilderness Foundation in service of stewarding the environment and educating young people. Representatives of both organizations will be on hand to answer questions and to hear feedback from the Mount Holly and Ninevah communities about conserving Lake Ninevah and its surroundings.

Yankee Chank to Play in Proctorsville on August 1st

The Town of Cavendish presents another in its continuing series of Wednesday evening concerts on August 1st at 6:00 p.m. when Yankee Chank will appear on the Green in Proctorsville.

Yankee Chank is a Vermont group that performs traditional Cajun music from the heart of southwest Louisiana. The French-speaking people of eastern Canada, our immediate neighbor to the north, were the inspiration for the southern Cajuns and thereby inspired Yankee Chank. The band has been performing both Cajun and Zydeco music around Vermont and beyond, using fiddle, accordion, guitar and bass since 1996. The band's performances offer a distinctive immersion into this unique regional music.

This concert is coordinated by the Cavendish Community and Conservation Association and is sponsored by Murdock's Restaurant. All concerts are free and open to the public. Bring a blanket or a chair and a picnic dinner. Join with friends or make new ones. Please help continue this free Wednesday evening tradition in Cavendish. Everyone is welcome.

For more information please call Robin at 226-7736. In case of rain, please check the Cavendish Facebook page for further information.
